

1827

Daniel Webster was elected
Senator from Massachusetts
John C. Calhoun was the Chairman of the Senate because he was Vice Pres. of U.S.

In most of his speeches Webster spoke out against slavery and for a strong central govt.